

SAVE EDGEWATER

The Lake Must Not Be Fenced In or Sheridan Road Used as a Garage.

The Gang is reported to be fencing in the lake up in Edgewater, so that public access to the lake shore is denied to citizens, rich and poor alike. These fences should be torn down by the city or the Lincoln Park board. Immediate adoption of the plan agreed upon by the Chicago plan commission and the city council's committee on harbors looking toward a comprehensive development of the lake front so it can be of use to everybody for bathing beaches and other purposes is advocated in a statement issued by Charles H. Wacker, chairman of the commission. He urges the people of Chicago to learn a lesson from the hot wave.

Commenting upon these encroachments on the rights of the people the Daily News said editorially: "What a blessing to the people of Chicago these facilities for health-giving recreation would have proved if they had been in existence at the time of the recent prolonged period of excessive heat. Surely it ought to be possible to settle speedily the differences that are productive of such serious loss to the people."

Using Sheridan Road for a garage in the vicinity of Balmoral avenue causes Edgewater residents to be rightfully indignant at the Auto Gang's antics. Lake Michigan belongs to the people. Edgewater residents are not included, however. The waters of the lake are being barred from all, rich and poor alike. No wonder there is a feeling of indignation over the matter. Great indignation is felt in Edgewater over the action of certain people in shutting the public off from the lake shore. The park board is blamed.

Governor Edward F. Dunne will be renominated by the Democrats. In an address to the public just issued, the Governor says:

"During the Forty-eighth general assembly, notwithstanding the fact that the Democratic members of both houses were in a minority, I had the satisfaction of seeing twelve of the eighteen measures recommended by me placed upon the statute books," the Governor declared.

Following is the list of twelve measures which the Governor says were

PEOPLE ARE WITH HOYNE

State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne is out with a statement announcing his candidacy for re-election. His platform is to be, he asserts, the record of his achievements during the last four years, and on this record he asks the voters to assist him. His statement follows:

"I have decided to be a candidate for re-election as state's attorney, and to that end shall seek a renomination from the Democratic party at the September primary.

"This conclusion results chiefly from the advice and assurances of support I have received from over 1,000 citizens of different political parties, who are leaders in business, labor, professional and civic affairs. They inform me they will soon elect officers and organize for an energetic campaign.

"I regret that the existing election laws make it necessary for candidates for State's Attorney and other municipal offices to seek a partisan nomination. National politics and policies, and politics generally, should have not the slightest connection with the office of State's Attorney and such offices. Since the election in 1912 I have conducted the State's Attorney's office on this theory. Upon the record made during this period I stand.

"I ask the aid and votes of the voters of the Democratic party at the September primary upon that record, regardless of their previous factional connections, sympathies or activities.

"My determination to be a candidate is and will remain, unaffected by the action, desires or wishes of any individual, or group of individuals, assuming to give orders to the mass of the party voters of this county or to myself.

"I feel it necessary to say this because of silly newspaper articles to the effect that certain Democratic leaders were organizing a local 'Tammany,' and that candidates for party nominations in this county would be compelled by a pledge to turn over the power of appointment and other patronage of the offices they sought to some committee or group of leaders.

"I never have nor will I ever sign, give or make such a pledge, or any pledge whatever other than that I make in public to the voters of Cook County. I disclaim any intention or desire, singly or jointly, to Tammanyize any official or private citizen, and I know that I will permit no one to familiarize me or any office I ever hold or hope to hold."

"I recognize," he said, "under the existing election laws, the legality and propriety of each political party choosing a county central committee, and that committees have certain powers and duties to perform.

"Although the nomination of candidates for State's Attorney and county officers generally is not one of the functions of the county central committee, and although its indorsement or failure to indorse binds neither the voters of the party nor the candidate, I realize the county central committee, through its reorganization, can give greatest aid to a candidate for nomination.

"Having this in mind, and subject to what has been said above, I shall seek the aid and indorsement of my candidacy for nomination from the present duly elected county central committee of the Democratic party, and hope, upon my record in office, I may receive it.

"I have referred to my record in office, so in conclusion let me say that this record is not one of drastic, harsh and relentless prosecutions. No public official or private citizen, minister, priest or rabbi ever asked leniency or mercy for the young, ignorant, poor or misguided first offender in vain. It is to the habitual criminal and betrayer of public trust alone that a deaf ear has been turned."

Prison for Labor Men Immunity for Political Bosses

Accused of Violating the Same Law

For six weeks a gang of political bosses have been violating the State law prohibiting BOYCOTTING AND BLACKLISTING through their agents and in person. They have threatened and beseeched advertisers in this paper, under penalty of losing the "influence" and "pull" of the gang, to withdraw their advertising from The Eagle. Moreover, a so-called "official publication" of the gang has advised the injury of the business of this paper in violation of the law.

This is a penitentiary offense. Poor labor men, accused of boycotting or blacklisting, are sent to the penitentiary. But influential gang politicians are permitted to run at large.

Why?

placed on the statute books during his administration:

Ratification of amendment to Federal constitution providing for election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people.

The Public Utilities Commission law.

The law empowering all cities in the State to own and operate public utilities.

The law authorizing employment of convicts on roads.

The law establishing an epileptic colony.

The law providing for rotation of names of candidates for state offices on ballots.

The law creating the legislative reference bureau.

The law creating efficiency and economy committee.

The law amending the 2-cent railway fare act so as to make it apply to children.

The law creating a state highway commission and providing for the building of good roads.

The law compelling corporations to pay wages semi-monthly.

The law consolidating the fish and game commissions and reforming the abuses of the old separate commissions.

"In addition to the above," the statement adds, "I took pleasure in furthering the passage of and signing the bill known as the workmen's compensation act, which revised the law of 1911, and which provides, without litigation, compensation to injured employees for injuries sustained in the course of their employment.

"Likewise during my administration the Forty-eighth general assembly passed coal mining laws providing for greater safety in mining operations and the establishment of rescue stations. It also passed the electric headlight bill and other remedial legislation."

The people will stand by him.

Inducing people to buy property because of its proximity to Lake Michigan and then fencing them off from the enjoyment of the lake is one of the many complaints justly made by Edgewater people against a gang of exploiters.

CLEAR SHERIDAN ROAD

Property Owners and Users of the Drive Object to Its Being Used as a Garage.

Residents of Edgewater and users of the boulevard generally are loud in their complaints of the action of the Lincoln Park Commissioners in permitting the Sheridan Road in the vicinity of Balmoral avenue to be used as a garage for the autos of easy-going people associated with the gang.

Sheridan Road in this vicinity is almost impassable because of the gang of autos that are permitted to stand in the roadway.

This abuse has grown to be a public scandal.

There is no article made, that purity is as important in soap. Thousands however, buy cheap adulterated soaps, to save a few cents and lose dollars in rotted clothing. DOBBINS' ELECTRIC SOAP, perfectly pure, saves dollars.—Adv.
